A hand-drawn map showing the layout of two settlements, Krakovec and Krakove. The map is oriented with a river or stream flowing from the top left towards the bottom right. The settlement of Krakovec is located on the left side of the river, while Krakove is on the right. The map features numerous small, irregular shapes representing buildings or plots, many of which are numbered. A prominent yellow line runs along the river, possibly indicating a boundary or a specific path. The word 'Krakovec' is written in a simple, sans-serif font on the left side, and 'Krakove' is written on the right side. The overall style is that of a field sketch or a preliminary map.
